Guiding Principles	6

BRAND STORY

Scoop Room was built on a simple idea: indulgence deserves standards.

For too long, vegetarian and eggless ice cream in India has played it safe too sweet, too basic, too forgettable. Either chasing nostalgia or pretending to be luxury.

We're not either.

Scoop Room exists in the middle. Refined but relaxed. Joyful but controlled. Flavour-forward without the noise. Because good ice cream doesn't need theatrics.

It needs balance. Technique. Restraint.

We are made in India, built for the world.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Purpose

To prove vegetarian ice cream can be precise, flavour-led and world-class without losing its sense of joy.

Vision

To set the benchmark for refined, flavour-forward ice cream from India and earn a place on global tables.

Mission

Create ice cream for evolved palates and experiences that feel special without trying too hard.

BRAND LOGO

The Scoop Room logo is the most recognisable expression of the brand. It must always appear clear, balanced and uninterrupted.

Do not alter, distort or modify the mark in any way. Maintain proper clear space around it and ensure strong contrast against all backgrounds. The logo should never compete with other elements, it leads the composition.

When in doubt, keep it simple.

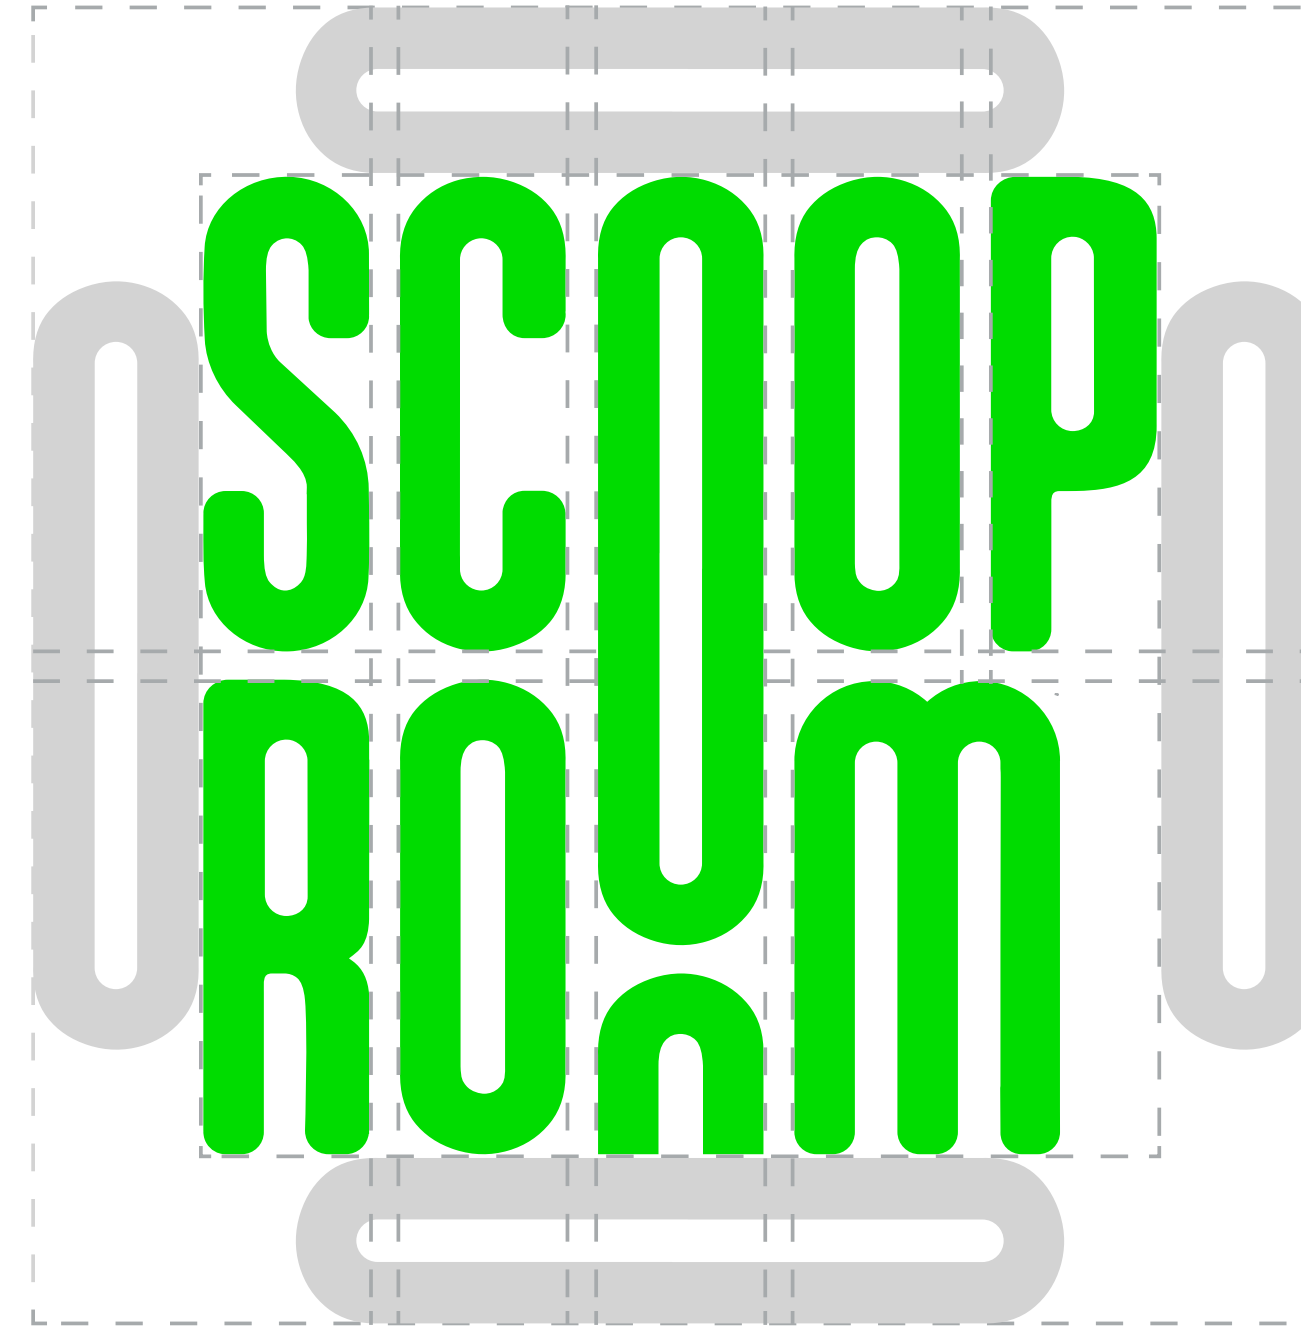

This applies consistently across all print and digital media.

CLEARSPACE

Clearspace is the minimum protected area surrounding the logo. This “breathing room” must be kept free of any other visual elements to ensure the logo’s prominence and impact.

This applies consistently across all print and digital media.

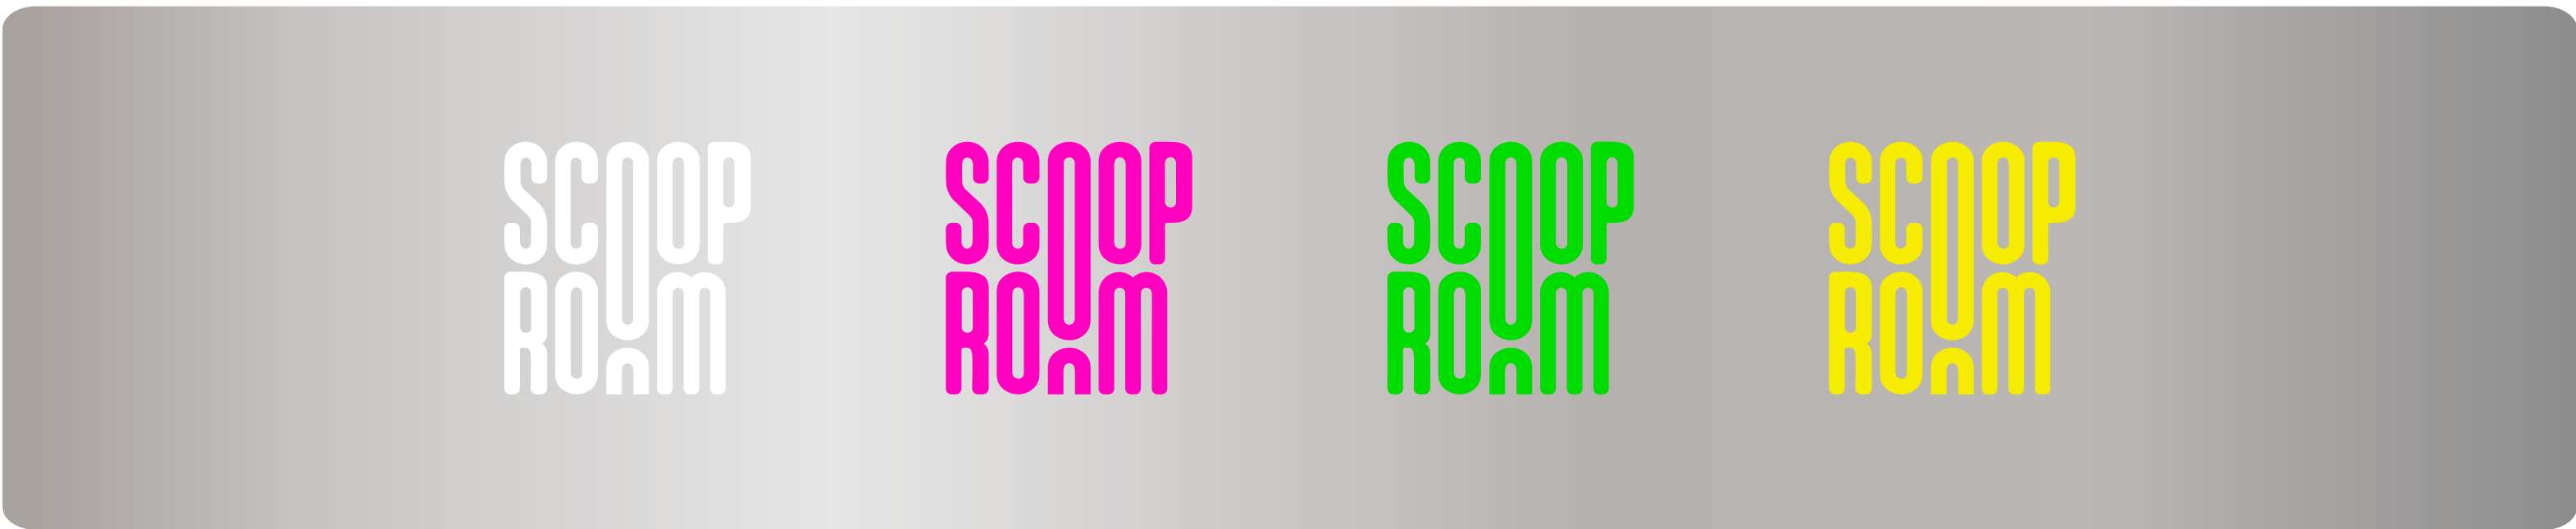

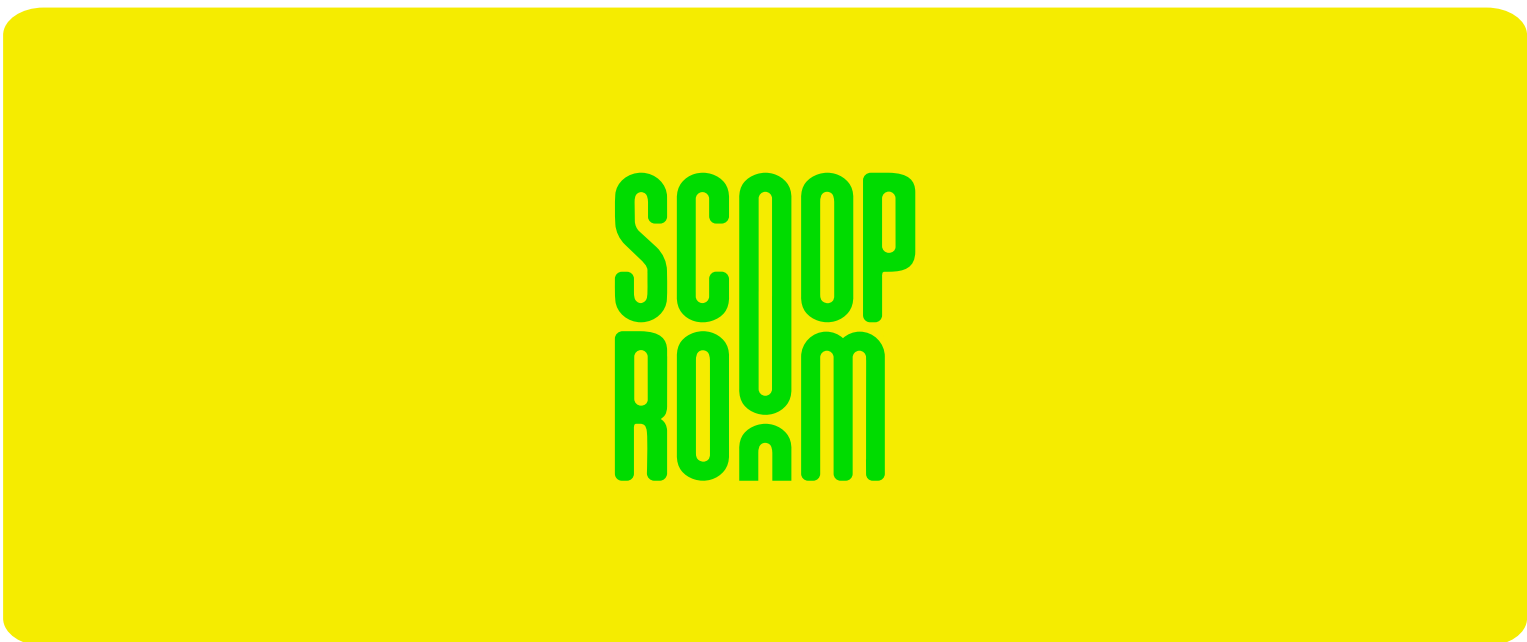

A space of minimum “x” should be kept around the logo at all times.

ICONOGRAPHY

Our icons are clean, minimal and purposeful. Forms are rounded, confident and consistent with the softness of the logo. No decorative details. No visual noise.

Icons should feel effortless functional at first glance, but considered in form. Simple. Precise.

IMAGERY

Our photography is bright, tactile and immersive. Flavour and ingredients heroes feel clean and sculptural. Texture shots go tight melting edges, crisp cones, real detail. Human moments are natural, sunlit and easy.

We favour close crops, strong light and a sense of movement. Nothing flat. Nothing overly styled. Every image should feel like a fresh scoop caught at the right moment.
